Mark Medina, Captain - NLPOA Clark County/Las Vegas Chapter Founder to Retire!

On December 30, 2005, Mark Medina, a Captain with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Nevada, will retire after 25 years in policing. Mark recently graduated from the Boyd School of Law, at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Captain Medina was the highest ranking Latino in the department for many years.

In 1987, Mark Medina traveled to the NLPOA National Spring Meeting in Phoenix, Arizona, to get the NLPOA Clark County/Las Vegas Chapter, Nevada, sworn in as a new chapter, and as the new chapter president. Mark Medina was a young police officer, with seven (7) years on the department, when he started this NLPOA Chapter which now has over 150 members from all local police departments.

Mark Medina has contributed significantly to Las Vegas community and to policing. He has been a strong voice for the NLPOA and his leadership will sure be missed.

A small gathering will held on Thursday, December 29, 2005, at 11:00 a.m., at the LVMPD Communications Bureau. Please join us in saying thank you.

Mark Medina will be starting his second career working for Lyons Law Firm, 512 South Fourth, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89101 {(702) 812-0205} after January 1, 2006.
